FIGHT LOST IN ONE ROUND ON A FOUL

One imported pugilistic wonder met defeat at the hands of a soldier from Camp McKinley at the Orpheum last night, and another one probably would have if Kid De Lile had been able to restrain his anger at the tactics of an opponent who would persist in staying down for the count after he had been knocked down.

The night's sport opened with a bout between a couple of coons, who were introduced as O'Brien and Lowery, and who were the worst pair of fakers, perhaps, that have been in a ring in town.
After they had done their turn, and amused the audience to that extent that the crowd was howling to have them put out of the ring, Ernest Heine and Willie Vierra came on for a three-round go. Heine was outclassed in weight and skill, though not in pluck, and went down in the second because of his own failure to fight away and let the big fellow do the leading.

Then came the first of the main events, a six-round bout between Soldier Lathrop and W. Donovan of San Francisco, with Billy Woods as referee.
The imported pug was a professional, but the soldier staid with him pluckily for the six rounds, despite the talk of the wise ones that he would be put out in the sixth, and was given and deserved the decision.

What was looked for as the real fight of the night, the ten-round contest between De Lile and O'Neil, another San Francisco wonder, was most woefully disappointing on all accounts. De Lile had it won, really, in a walk. There was never any question that he could have whipped his man at any stage.
Probably, from the way things were going, he could have knocked him out in the first round. But O'Neil began going down in the first round, and every time he hit the floor he took the count, which seemed to anger De Lile.
The soldier kept coming like a whirlwind, and at last he lost his head and hit his man while he was down. That was the end. Referee Wood gave the decision to O'Neil, and the crowd could not but approve, while expressing their regret.

BASKET BALL LEAGUE OPENS

Before a crowd which filled the gallery and occupied almost every point of vantage about the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. last evening, the series of games of the Basket Ball league opened. The first game was of the intermediate class, and there the Blues were too many for the Whites, annexing the first count by the close score of 9 to 7. The game was fast and hard, the players showing some unfamiliarity with the rules, the fouls being many. The game was full of snap and the outlook is for some hard play before the series is much older.

The second game was the hardest possible, the men going into the play with vim, and making the counts hard to obtain. The players were a little rusty, perhaps, and there were frequent scrimmages and too many free shots, as a consequence. The passing was fairly good, but the men displayed an eagerness which made some of the plays for the basket short and altogether contributed to considerable throwing.

Young and Fuller were perhaps the stars of the play, Brock and Middle-ditch playing fast games and adding some fine exhibitions to their general utility play. The final score was, Business Men, 14; Five o'Clock, 11.

Association Football.

The Maile Ilimas were too many for the Honolulu in the Junior Association football match at Makiki yesterday afternoon. The game was a fast one, the young men showing growing familiarity with the rules and conditions of the game. The final result was Mailes 2, Honolulu 0. There was no senior game, owing to the fact that six of the Honolulu were out, from illness or business, and it was decided to forfeit rather than give the visitors poor sport. This makes the score in the league, Pacific 6, Honolulu 3, Maile 3.

HILLO NEWS NOTES.

A new fishing company, headed by white men, is trying to compete with Japanese fishermen in Hilo. They own a staunch boat and fish in deep water.

An unusually long list of delinquent taxpayers appears in this issue. The list is augmented by the names of a number of persons who are awaiting the result of the test to be given the validity of the income tax law.

A fishing sloop, the property of some white fishermen here, broke from her moorings during the blow Tuesday night and was smashed on the rocks near the Kilauea wharf. She had but recently been put in service.

John Daniel Marlin died at his home in Hilo Wednesday night of this week after an illness of ten days. Mr. Marlin was one of the well known characters of Hilo and was highly esteemed in all circles for his many sterling qualities.

Manuel Machado, residing at Kaumana, was awakened Saturday night by some one moving about his room. When Machado called the intruder jumped out of a window and escaped. It was discovered later that the thief had taken $50 of Machado's money.

Rev. Sidney H. Morgan, late of the Diocese of Spokane, will arrive in Hilo some time in February to take charge of the local work for the Episcopal church. In a letter to Thomas Cooke, Bishop Restarick gives the above information together with the fact that he himself will shortly visit this island.
Judge Morris M. Estee, of the United States District Court, R. Breckons, U.
S. District Attorney, F. C. Handy, Deputy U. S. Marshal, and other officers of the court, arrived by the Ki-nau late Wednesday night. In compliance with the requirements of the law Judge Estee convened court that night, adjourning immediately.

N. C. Willifong returned Wednesday from a trip through the outer districts in connection with the duties of his office. Mr. Willifong says the people in Kona and Kohala are taking a great interest in the proposed county bill.
Public meetings are being held at which the chief point discussed is that of boundaries. There is an influential element at the north end of the island desiring that Waimea be made a county seat. There are supporters of this view both in the Kohalas and in Hamakua.

John Borge, brake tender on a lumber wagon of the Onomea Sugar Company, lost his life in Hilo last Friday morning. The wagon was at Hackfeld's lumber yard waiting for a load when the horses started to run away. Borge jumped for the bridge on one of the leaders and tried to hold them but they ran too fast for him and he had to let go. He fell under the horses and two of the wheels passed over his back. He was picked up by Mr. Hopkins, an employee of Hackfeld & Co., and put in a hack. Before reaching the hospital the man died. Borge was a young and hardworking Portuguese.

"AND WHAT A LOVELY CHANDELIER YOU HAVE (ASIDE) I HOPE THAT OLD MAN HAS NOT RE-COGNIZED ME"

AS A MATTER OF FACT, OLD MR. BULLION DIDN'T KNOW SNOBBLY WAS ON EARTH. HE MERELY
